

Announcement of Founding Joint Venture Company

Dear Customer,

We are pleased to announce that we have signed up a business alliance venture, named Denso cableplus (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd., in Hong Kong with Denso Industry Co., Ltd. (www.denso-k.co.jp, hereinafter “Denso”) on 15th July, 2016.

Denso has been founded since the year 1958 in Japan and specializing in wiring harnesses. It manufactures a full range of the products used in consumer products and industrial machineries. Besides, Denso has a well-established sales network covering a number of leading listed Japanese companies. With the strategic alliance in existence as well as through the strong network and influence of Denso, we look forward that we would be able to speed up our accession to the market in Japan.

Sincerely,

Chung Kuen LAM
Chairman
cableplus Industrial Co. Ltd.
